Office hours: Due to current CDC guidance and individual personal circumstances, many of our wonderful ASCT office volunteers are unavailable to staff the office in accordance with our “normal” office hours. We are making every effort to ensure every message, whether by phone or email is responded to in a timely manner.

If no volunteer is available to assist you when you call or visit, we highly recommend leaving a detailed message on our office voicemail or by email. Time-sensitive inquires may email the office manager directly at asct.officemanager@gmail.com

Shipping times: We use USPS media-mail rate postage, most orders usually arrive within 3-9 days of shipment-however due to recent circumstances, some members are reporting experiencing slight delays, with items potentially taking a few extra days to arrive. We are happy to provide USPS tracking information for each order.

Thank you for your continued patience, understanding, and support!
